

Celebrate Sound “Kick-off” Party

The Sertoma Clubs of the midlands are having a “kickoff” at the baseball game to celebrate our joint effort for the upcoming walk, Celebrate Sound – Don’t Walk in Silence. Members from Cayce-West Columbia, Columbia, Lexington, North Lake, Richland, Wade Hampton, and St. Andrews - Irmo will head to the ballpark for an afternoon of baseball, hotdogs and friendship. Wear your old Walk shirts or a Sertoma shirt or one of your event shirts. Cost for a ticket is $30 which gets you in the park and into the Coke Pavilion where you will have an “all you can eat menu”.

USC vs Brown 1:30 PM Sunday, March 9th

Space is limited, so email Pat Blackwell at patrick47@sc.rr.com to confirm your space or with questions. Please let me know as soon as possible. Space is limited.

Coke Pavilion at Carolina Stadium

The Coke Pavilion located down the left field line at Carolina Stadium offers a unique opportunity to be up close to the action. The Pavilion offers a private picnic style seating that is great for office outings, a family get together, or a great location for friends to watch the game.

The Coke Pavilion is available for groups of 25 all the way up to groups of 60 people. For $30 a person you will receive:

- The Coke Pavilion reserved for your group

- Ticket to Coke Pavilion

- All you can eat menu including:
